FROM THE NTM PRESIDENT

GUNNY HARTMAN

"Your time is limited; don't waste it living someone else's life." ~Steve Jobs

HAPPY NEW YEAR! This is the time of year when many ponder resolutions to facilitate a "New Year, New Me." I have more than a few new things to do and also quite a few old things added to my do NOT do list.

Let me encourage you to consider adding more NTM events to your to do list. We are hoping to have a party in the spring, but there are many special interest groups (SIGs) in which you can partake all year. See the calendar inside this month's issue of the M-Aura for activities and/or www.facebook.com/NorthTexasMensa to connect with others as well.

I invite you to turn to the inside back cover and find your 2024 Board of Directors: President Gunny Hartman, VP Ken Roberts, Secretary Collene Goldman, Treasurer Cathy Allshouse, and Board Members at Large Chris Cree, Juan Faura, and Jonathan Bethune. They all have contact information provided. That is not accidental. It is our pleasure to serve and we hope to meet you and be a positive part of your new year, helping you live your desired life.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY! The following NTMers add another candle to the cake in January:

SIXTH SENSE — JOHN NEEMIDGE, REGION 6 VICE CHAIR

Happy New Year! Consider making one of your resolutions to become more involved in American Mensa. Whether that's your local group, judging scholarship essays, working within the region, participating nationally, connecting with a SIG, or all of the above, we see over and over again that people who are more involved with Mensa are happier with their Mensa membership.

We are now in American Mensa's 2024 election cycle. The 2024 elections will determine who serves on the AMC from 2024 to 2027. There are five nationally elected positions (Chair, 1st Vice Chair, 2nd Vice Chair, Treasurer, and Secretary), plus ten RVCs. Each candidate must collect a number of signatures on their petitions (250 for nationally elected positions, 100 for RVCs).

I will not be running for RVC in 2024. Instead, I am running for Secretary. If you are interested in running for RVC, please feel free to contact me. I'll be happy to discuss what the role entails. If you are interested in some other role nationally, I'll be happy to discuss that, too.

I strongly encourage you to visit the American Mensa elections website (https://www.us.mensa.org/lead/amc/elections/2024-election-portal/), click on 'View Candidate Petitions,' look at the candidates for various office, and consider signing their petitions. A signature is not an indication of support or a promise to vote for any candidate. It merely states that you believe they are capable of performing the job if elected.

The most recent AMC meeting was held December 9th. You can find mini-minutes at https://www.us.mensa.org/lead/amc/meeting-reports. The most important item to pass was a dues increase motion. That motion will have to be passed again at the March meeting (to be held in Hurst, TX). I ultimately could not support the motion at this meeting. I still welcome your thoughts and inputs on this, and on any other American Mensa business. Please let me know how you feel.

Petitions for the 2024 AMC election will be available to submit, and for members to sign, in December. I encourage those of you with leadership experience (particularly within Mensa, but other organizations as well) to consider running, and encourage everyone to sign petitions from those who run. RVCs need 100 signatures to become candidates, while national officers require 250 signatures. I hope you'll take the time to become involved in the election process. While we had stronger voting turnout in the prior election than has become standard, we were still well below 10% turnout. We should be able to do better than that!

Many local groups, and Region 6 as a Region, will be looking for scholarship judges in the spring. We need your help! Please consider volunteering.

Please send me any thoughts, ideas, questions, concerns, general comments, whatever. I've got a contact form for feedback at https://tinyurl.com/RVC6-JLN. Of course, if you prefer, you can always contact me via email at rvc6@us.mensa.org or by phone at 512.695.9876.

GIFTED YOUTH CORNER

by Bill Rock

Welcome to 2024! For December, the GY Book Club discussed Hassan's Win Every Argument. It is not, perhaps, your typical GY book club pick, but it was interesting. The author takes apart the process of debate/persuasion, and provides time-tested methods (in some cases, over the course of millennia) to make your argument as persuasive as possible, while identifying weaknesses in the arguments of others.

The book reminded me of the public radio show where teams face off in front of a live audience and try to change people's minds in real time: Intelligence Squared U.S. It used to be heard on KERA, but you can still find it as a podcast (of course) and the episodes are worth a listen. Since we were discussing debating, two of our attendees decided to hold a debate on one of the more pressing issues of our time: "Gym Class is a complete waste of time". Arguments for and against the proposition were presented, but in the end the audience was unswayed from their original position. For another take on the issue, you can look up the….ahem….classic… song High School Gym by Barnes and Barnes.

For this month, we're going back to an event we have had good luck with in the past. Board Game Arena hosts on-line versions of many popular games. I recommend going to www.boardgamearena.com before the event and getting an account. I'll be on as wrock_NTM.

Election Committee Report by Randy Brack

Election of the 2024 NTM Board of Directors

The election was held at the general meeting on November 19, 2023 as the general meeting order of business. In the order they appeared on the ballot, candidates present gave campaign speeches of three minutes or less. The Election Committee passed out ballots to members, who filled them out and returned them. Two ballots had been received by mail and 16 ballots were collected in person. All 18 ballots were valid, found to be cast by NTM members in good standing, and were counted by the Election Committee. None of the ballots were found to be void in their entirety, although two were marked in such a way as to be invalid for tabulating the Board Member at Large (BMAL) positions. A blank vote was counted as an abstention.

Results:

Elected unopposed with the following number of votes:

President: Gunny Hartman, 18 votes
Vice President: Ken Roberts, 18 votes
Secretary: Collene Goldman, 15 votes
Treasurer: Cathy Allshouse, 18 votes

Preferential Voting for Board Member at Large:

Candidate	Round 1	Round 2	Round 3
Chris Cree	13			elected
Juan Faura	0	9		elected
Jonathan Bethune	3	3	12	elected
Abstentions/Invalids	2	6	6

I would like to note that there were three BMAL candidates for three equal positions. Per NTM Bylaws, Article VI, Section 10.A, if all three candidates had received at least one number-one ranking each, they could all have been declared “elected unopposed.” Because one candidate did not get any valid first place votes, preferential voting had to be used.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Election Committee,
Randy Brack
NTM Election Chair
